What do you love about working with children?

My favourite part of being a teacher is forming a unique bond with each child. I love learning about their interests and talents, supporting their development and watching their confidence grow step by step.

You'll often find me...

Swimming wherever I can – in the ocean, lakes or rivers! I grew up on the coast of Ireland, surrounded by gorgeous beaches, and I'm now loving exploring the beautiful lakes and rivers of Bavaria.

A fun fact about me is...

I started playing the violin at just two and a half years old while attending Montessori! I still play today, both as a soloist and as part of orchestras and chamber groups.

What always helps you make the children smile?

Dancing together! A little music and some silly dance moves can turn almost any moment into a happy one!

What were you like as a child?

I was always asking "why?" and full of imagination! My favorite game was pretending to be a teacher with my dolls!

You'll often find me...

Reading Harry Potter (again and again) or listening to Taylor Swift. And in winter? You'll probably find me on the slopes!

What do you love about working with children?

I love working with children because it's never boring! Every day is different, and there's always a new adventure to explore and something new to learn and discover together.

What do you enjoy doing on rainy days?

I enjoy going to the park with the children or learning a new song together.

A fun fact about me is...

I lived in the US for a year, where I attended an American high school and lived with a host family.

What do you love about working with children?

Working with children is never boring! I especially love the spontaneous hugs and the wonderfully genuine and thoughtful things children say – they can really make my day.

What do you enjoy outside the kindergarten?

I love travelling and discovering new places. Wherever I go, I'm always on the lookout for little treasures and ideas to bring back to the classroom.
I also love dancing!

A little fun fact about me...

I often call the children in my group "my children." When my daughter was younger, she would protest: "Mom, they're not your children!" So my family decided that I simply have two sets of children – my own and my kindergarten children!

What do you love about working with children?

One of my favourite things is watching all those little “wow” moments happen! Seeing a child go from making little sounds to saying their first word, and then suddenly putting together a whole sentence, is so special. I also love all the joy and happiness children bring every day.

What were you like as a child?

I loved making crafts, getting creative and learning new songs. I’ve always loved having fun while learning and creating something new.

You’ll often find me...

Travelling! I absolutely love discovering new places. There’s a pretty good chance you’ll find me with a suitcase in my hand, ready for my next adventure.

What do you love most about working with children?

What I love most is being able to support and follow children through their early developmental journey. Growing into a little person is an incredible process, and I find it fascinating to witness.

What were you like as a child?

I was a little ball of energy – playing for hours in the sea, running around the garden or climbing trees. I used that enthusiasm for endless games, including pretending to be a teacher.

You'll often find me...

Rock climbing, spending time outdoors or trying out a new sport or hobby.
